MULTI-TIMEFRAME ANALYSIS

Top Down Analysis of The Market
HTF = Higher Timeframes (1W, 1D)
MTF = Mid Timeframes (4H, 1H, 15M)
LTF = Lower Timeframes (5M, 2M, 1M)

TOP DOWN ANALYSIS ORDER OF OPERATIONS

At Phantom Trading we always start from the higher timeframes and make our way down to the lower timeframe in which we execute our trades.

IMPULSIVE & CORRECTIVE MOVES IN THE MARKET

IMPULSES and CORRECTIONS are typically TRENDS on the
LOWER TIMEFRAME

MULTI-TIMEFRAME STRUCTURE & TREND

MULTI-TIMEFRAME STRONG/WEAK HIGHS & LOWS

MULTI-TIMEFRAME EXPECTATIONAL ORDERFLOW

Anything Can Happen

Part of mastering the art of trading is understanding the market works in probabilities.

Structure playing out as expected works on probabilities too. If structure fails, be ready to adapt, re-adjust, and REACT.

...rather than try to predict and overreact.

MASTERING MARKET DIRECTION

Price can fake a BOS with a low conviction close or wick...

And reverse completely (trapping unsuspecting traders).

BEWARE OF FALSE BREAKS OF STRUCTURE (BULL & BEAR TRAPS)

FRACTAL STRUCTURE & ORDERFLOW

All Trend Changes Start From The LTF.

Every shift in Daily Structure starts from the 1-Min.

1-Minute Orderflow shifts 1-Minute Structure

1-Minute Structure shifts 15-Minute Orderflow

15-Minute Orderflow shifts 15-Minute Structure

15-Minute Structure shifts 4-Hour Orderflow

4-Hour Orderflow shifts 4-Hour Structure

And so on...

CONSISTENT ANALYSIS = CONSISTENT TRADING

When doing your top down, multi-timeframe analysis remember to use the same timeframes consistently!

| Weekly    | >> | Higher-Timeframe Zones & Orderflow For Very Long Term Narrative                  |

Ask Yourself The Following Questions As You Mark Up Your Charts:

Weekly: What zones of weekly supply or demand are we respecting / are chaining (orderflow)?

Daily: What is our daily structure, and where can we expect 4H orderflow to shift?

4H: Are we in bullish or bearish structure? Are we in bullish or bearish orderflow relative to the daily narrative?

15M: Are we bullish or bearish based on 4H orderflow? What is 15m orderflow (intraday bullish or bearish bias)?

1M: Am I in a point of interest, and do I expect my intraday bias to play out from here? Where can I enter the market?
